Title of the activity : ML workshop By Aditya Deo

Date of conducts : 08/22/2022

Category: Technical

Details: Within the last four years, demand for machine learning jobs has risen by almost 75 percent, and this trend is expected to continue. Machine Learning becomes a necessary skill to survive in this competitive industry with this kind of popularity. So in light of this thought, PCCOE ACM student chapter conducted a Machine Learning event hosted by their peers for students of PCCOE. This is an interactive event conducted to share insights on machine learning.
